

From: Mary Downes [mdownes@catchhousing.org]
Sent: Monday, December 20, 2004 3:06 PM
To: Comments, Regs
Subject: 2004-53 Community Reinvestment Act

The Community Reinvestment Act has been extremely successful in making sure that investments happen in low and moderate income communities and for their residents. Thrifts should remain under the obligations of CRA to continue these investments specifically to low income people and the communities they live in. The proposed changes should not be implemented.

Mary Downes
Director of Education
Home Buyer Education Center
CATCH - Concord Area Trust for Community Housing
603-225-8835 ext 25